

You've spent a lifetime
planning your business...

Have you planned for its survival?

If something happens to you, what will happen to your business? Will it continue to thrive? Will it wrap-up operations smoothly? Or will it cause confusion and concern for your surviving partners/ employee(s) and/or family?

You are the person best suited to planning what happens, and unless you make decisions now, your wishes may be overlooked. To ensure everything happens according to your objectives, you'll need to answer the following:

- Who will run the business?
- How will your spouse get income?
- How will other family members be provided for?
- Who will pay creditors?
- How will estate taxes and settlement costs be paid?
- If you have partners, what will they want to do?
- Will your partners buy the business?
- How will they fund the purchase? How much will they pay?
- What do you want to happen?

Ask me how I can help set plans in place that make sense for your business, your family and yourself.
